The candidate should have the requisite Educational/Technical qualifications from recognized University/Institute as on the closing date of submission of the application. Those awaiting results of the final examination need not apply. RRB may reject the applications of candidates at any stage of recruitment process in case the candidate is not fulfilling the requisite criteria, and if appointed, such candidates are liable to be removed from service summarily.
- 1.02 The candidates who have been debarred for life from all RRB examinations or the candidates who have been debarred for a specified period which is not yet completed, need not apply in response to this Employment Notice. Their candidature will be rejected during any stage of recruitment as and when detected.
- 1.03 Candidates should fill up the application in his/her own handwriting and must sign as well as put their left hand thumb impressions at the prescribed places. Applications should be filled either in English or in Hindi. Application should be in a good quality A4 size bond paper (80 GSM) using one side only. Newspaper cuttings should not be used as application. The candidates purchasing printed application from the market should ensure that it conforms to the prescribed format published in the Employment Notice. The candidates can also make photocopy of the application format as given in the Employment News/Rozgar Samachar and then fill up the details, they can also download the application format from the website of the RRBs. The detailed centralized employment notice has also been displayed on the notice board in the office of RRBs. The candidates should send their application sufficiently in advance before the closing date. RRBs will not be responsible for any postal delay/wrong delivery at any stage of the selection process.
- 1.04 The candidates are required to sign in English or in Hindi in the prescribed places provided in Application Form and in Information Sheet. The signatures on Application Form, Information Sheet, Answer Sheet, Question Booklet and other places should be identical. The signatures must be in running hand and not in block capital or disjointed letters. Signatures at the time of application, written examination and document verification in different style or language may result in cancellation of candidature.
- 1.05 Candidates shall refer Para-16 given below for submission of Single / Separate Applications to the concerned RRB. (a) The candidates have to submit single application as instructed (Para-16) for combined categories, duly mentioning the order of priority of categories in the space provided in the Item No.1 of Application Form (Annexure-1). Candidate will only be considered for the posts indicated in the item No. 1 of Application Form. It is compulsory for the candidates to give the priority of categories. once choice is made, it is final & cannot be changed. If the candidate has not given any priority in the application, the application shall be treated as incomplete and rejected. (b) Common examination will be conducted for such combined categories i.e., the candidate will be writing a single examination for all the categories within such combined category as per his/her choice of priority. A single roll number will be allotted to such candidates in combined category covering all the categories he/she has applied for. (c) After the selection process, the category allotted by RRB to the candidate is final. Request for change in category will not be entertained. (d) One envelope should contain one application only. Candidates should however note that the RRBs may hold written examination for more than one group in a single session.
- 1.06 Candidates submitting more than one application for the same category will be summarily rejected and also debarred from RRB examinations as per para-14.03 given below.
- 1.07 Candidates should note that only the Date of Birth as recorded in the Matriculation/High School Examination Certificate or an equivalent Certificate as on the date of submission of applications will only be accepted by the RRB.
- 1.08 Serving Defence Personnel likely to be released within one year of the closing date (i.e. 04-04-2011) can also apply against Ex-Servicemen vacancies.
- 1.09 Vacancies of Ex-Servicemen and persons with disability wherever given in the above table are not separate but included in the total number of vacancies.
- 1.10 The number of vacancies indicated in this Employment Notice is provisional and may increase or decrease or even become Nil depending upon the actual needs of the Railway Administration. The Administration also reserves the right to cancel the notified vacancies at its discretion and such decision will be final and binding on all. In the event of cancellation of notified vacancies, the examination fees paid by the candidates will not be refunded.
- 1.11 Dates of all examinations and results are published in Employment News/Rozgar Samachar and local dailies. These are also given in the website of the concerned Railway Recruitment Board. Call letters for written examinations are sent to candidates by post (Under Certificate of Posting). The candidates whose applications are rejected are also intimated through post along with the cause of rejection.
